

Evason Phuket & Six Senses Spa Eco Story

Evason Phuket & Six Senses Spa celebrating World Environment Day 2007

Evason Phuket, 5 June 2007: Evason Phuket & Six Senses Spa celebrated world environment day by inviting British International School join the Evason Phuket Eco Trail.

6 students and 3 teachers joined to learn about Evason Phuket's environmental work. Of particular interest was the waste management system. The students were shown the recycling corner and composting facility on-site. They could also see how the organic kitchen and garden waste, which after composting turns into rich soil, is used for the Herb and Vegetable Garden and nursery.

The students hope to take some of the ideas and knowledge gained from this trip to set up their own waste management
