Six Senses Hotels Resorts Spas are discovered in some of the world's most unique and beautiful settings. Whether it is a Six Senses resort on a remote pristine island or a Six Senses spa in a colorful urban setting, the touch-points are always decidedly the same. And while being part of the local fabric and culture, Six Senses is very much in tune with the wider world. Crafted guest experiences stimulate, energize and revitalize the human spirit, and are delivered by global experts with wide ranging backgrounds.

With everything designed to provide a platform for experiencing the simple beauty of nature and ensuring that it is life-rich, is why sustainability is much more than CSR for Six senses, it is just good business.

Today, the hospitality management company comprises 11 operating resorts and 28 spas, branded Six Senses, family-focused Evason resorts and Six Senses Spas. The group is renowned for its unique and diverse design personality.

Six Senses resorts are intimate, offering an emotionally intelligent approach to service that begins with empathy. The Six Senses aesthetic has a touch of quirkiness, which supports delightful and unexpected surprises, delivered out of constant curiosity and willingness to challenge the norm. The responsible and caring attitude of Six Senses is intrinsic to the brand and extends to employees and local communities in which Six Senses operates. It is committed to preserving the environment through sustainable operations, guided by overarching goals and values. All aspects of the Six Senses operations embrace these values, which help to define the brand.

Complementing each Six Senses resort is a Six Senses spa. Spas are also hosted in prestigious hotels and stand-alone settings on three continents and in many exotic island destinations. Six Senses Spas offers a wide range of holistic wellness, rejuvenation and beauty treatments administered under the guidance of expert therapists. They incorporate local healing traditions together with a menu of specialist and signature therapies in each location. Pioneering wellness by constantly exploring, learning and rethinking the typical spa model, Six Senses Spas understands that before connecting with the world around us we need to reconnect with ourselves.
