

PROFILE

Omar Romero

Vice President, Development

Omar Romeo is the vice president of development at Six Senses Hotels Resorts Spas and responsible for the continued, sustained growth of the Six Senses brand globally.

This significant development program places a strong focus on Six Senses Spas which are hosted by Six Senses' own resorts and other prestigious properties, locations on three continents and in many exotic island destinations, incorporating local healing traditions together with a menu of specialist and signature therapies in each location. The spas are renowned for pioneering wellness by constantly exploring, learning and rethinking the typical spa model.

Based in Bangkok, Six Senses offers developers and owners a customized and in depth range of technical, pre-opening and management services overseen by industry leaders in the fields of wellness, sustainability and operations.

Omar has been with Six Senses for over 15 years with the group and with nine of those years spent leading the development team.

Born and raised in Mexico, he holds dual nationality Mexican and Spanish passports, as his family are natives of Galicia, Spain. He earned a Bachelor of Science degree from the prestigious Ecole Hôtelière de Lausanne in Switzerland and a Diploma in Hotel Management from Les Roches, Hotel Management School.

Married and father of two young daughters and one son, he enjoys cooking, diving, traveling and reading. Omar enjoys learning new languages and is fluent in Spanish, Portuguese and English. He is always on a quest to find exciting development opportunities for Six Senses.
