Six Senses Shaharut, Israel

The Rich Biblical Heritage of Ancient Negev Desert’s Arava Valley

Fascinating, enchanting and of biblical proportions, the Negev Desert is the epitome of desert landscapes. It is on this boundless horizon often described as the nexus of heaven and earth that Six Senses Shaharut is integrated into a dramatic cliff. It is at one with the almost-supernatural panorama, where sunsets meld into the orange dunes to become an inky sky scattered with stardust. This inspired location named Shaharut, which translates as the moment just before dawn, adds yet another dimension to the portfolio of incredible natural settings that Six Senses Hotels Resorts Spas calls home. History abounds in this region which was home to the ancient and fascinating Midianite tribe.

Six Senses Shaharut offers a creative approach to cuisine, combining the best of Israeli and Mediterranean influences while embracing the Eat With Six Senses philosophy of local, fresh and seasonal produce. Where possible, ingredients are harvested from the resort’s organic gardens and carefully selected farmers at the nearby kibbutzim. We are respectful of local culture and traditions and, while we are not kosher certified, we avoid serving ingredients such as pork and shellfish.
