

PROFILE

Neil Palmer

Chief Operating Officer

Neil joined Six Senses in 2021 to look after the brand's growing portfolio of hotels, resorts and spas. He will also focus on translating the Six Senses vision of reconnection into emblematic resort locations, downtown addresses and new residential offerings.

Neil has over 37 years of international hospitality experience, most of which he spent with Starwood Hotels & Resorts. In his role as Senior Vice President Operations Asia Pacific, he developed the company's hotel portfolio and oversaw the pre-opening hotel pipeline within the region.

Following his 25-year tenure with Starwood, Neil became Chief Executive Officer and Co-owner of the premium luxury company, Per AQUUM Retreats & Resorts. Neil has in recent years been Chief Executive Officer of Elements HSC, a company he co-established specializing in global hospitality consulting and asset management.

A graduate of Westminster Hotel School in London and a Fellow of the Institute of Hospitality UK, Neil is a driven leader who believes learning and developing should always be a constant in life.
